FOREWORD

This year has been one of rebuilding for Kings Mountain High School. With the move into a new building, expanded facilities have made possible greater educational experiences. The student commons area, particularly, has opened an entirely new area of student life. Many new challenges have been confronted by the students. The new building has been the setting for many interesting and unusual experiences. This edition of MILESTONES is presented as a record of these experiences.

Dedication

. . . because as teacher, counselor, friend—
you have inspired, guided, understood us . . .
because, through your personal interest and genuine concern you have become an inseparable part of Kings Mountain High School . . . thus, because Kings Mountain High School will always mean the more to us for your having been identified with it . . . we inscribe with your name this record of our life at Kings Mountain High School in 1966, as a lasting mark of our deep respect and affection for you—

MRS. HELEN AUSLEY

Mr. B. N. Barnes, Superintendent of the Kings Mountain School System.

ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTORS

Miss Alice Averitt, the Supervisor of the Kings Mountain School system.

Mrs. Wanza Davis and Mrs. Becky Scism, secretaries to the Superintendent.

SECRETARIES SERVE

Miss Kay Canipe
School Secretary

Harry E. Jaynes, Kings Mountain High School Principol

Eoch school yeor hos unique distinctions thot ore singled out os memoroble footprints on the educotionol pothwoy of Kings Mountoin High School. The indelible marks on the lives of our people hove strongly influenced our culturol heritage.

The school yeor of 1965-66 morches into history with listed distinctions written on the noble bonner it proudly corries:

(1.) Use of the new high school plant focilities for the first time;
(2.) Integration of the student body;
(3.) More responsible porticipotion of the S.P.O members in school life;
(4.) Beginning of construction of the footboll stodium.

The eogerly onticipoted opening of our school in September mode the most pessimistic potron extol the focilities ond forsee on immediote Utopia for everyone. However, the school year, with many disconcerting foctors, dispelled the disillusions of ardent dreomers.

After receiving minor jolts to their ospirations, the school populotion become cognizont of the stern reality of earning a lofty ploce for these listed distinctions. By perseveronce, the members of the school mode versatile adjustment to focility shortcomings, re-ossessed the student body's obility to assume more responsibility, ond renewed strongly he declorotion of the Mountoineer spirit to face these smoll distrurbing influences ond to overcome them.

With the confrontment of these various chollenges, we ore confident thot the school year has been fruitful. We are assured thot the first steps to o unique ond scintilloting approoch to education were well token.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION ORGANIZATION

The Student Participation Organization is designed primarily to aid the faculty in school affairs and to give the students a representative voice in their government. During the course of the school year, the S.P.O. helps solve those problems which arise involving the students themselves. This organization has no power to make rules or to punish students. In the first year at the new high school, the S.P.O. tried to put more responsibility upon the students.

President, Scott Cloninger; Secretary, Sharon Gold; V. President, Nelson Connor.

The president of the S.P.O. will preside ot oll meetings of the council; coll speciol meetings when necessory; oppoint oll committees; represent the council on oll public occosions; and ossume such other duties os are generolly ossocioted with this office.

The vice-president will perform the duties of the president in his obsence.

The secretory sholl keep the minutes of oll student council meetings. She will moke o monthly report on the council's finonciol condition.

CHORUS

The stage came to life with excitement and laughter as the workers of Feudal Rock dude ranch were bombarded with the diverse problems of their unusual guests in the Kings Mountain High School Chorus presentation of the operetta, "Cherrie of Cherokee Road" on November 18.

Cherrie, an attractive girl who had been adopted by an Indian tribe when her home was destroyed in a tornado, wandered to the ranch. She explained to owner Alan O'Day that she had slipped away from the tribe when she learned that she was expected to marry Jasper Whiteploom, an Indian. Mr. O'Day kindly gave her a job.

The Kings Mountain High School Chorus brought delightful entertainment to the audience as they presented these characters and the story of "Cherrie of Cherokee Road."

CHOIR

JOY AND SORROW OF

The 1965 Mountaineers could best be described as inexperienced. With only four lettermen returning, Mr. Bates had many positions to fill. The players were lacking experience, but each was rich in spirit.

The Mounties got their baptism under fire against Salem High School. Kings Mountain continued in its ways of the past years by winning 19 to 0.

Mistakes marred the next week's game against Cherryville. Although the offense sputtered at times and Cherryville scored on a long pass, the Mountaineers managed to win by 13-7 score.

A fleet-footed Chase football team hosted Kings Mountain the following Friday. The injury-plagued Mountaineers had trouble containing the Trojan's fast backs. Chase avenged its previous defeats to Kings Mountain by winning 37 to 12.

Conference champion East Rutherford invaded City Stadium in the fourth game. With the exception of a few big plays, Kings Mountain battled East on even terms. The several big plays, however, resulted in a 20-0 Kings Mountain defeat.

Bessemer City provided the opposition for the Mountaineers Homecoming game. Although Kings Mountain moved the ball well, the Mounties could not cross the goal line. The game was in doubt until the final gun, but the Bessemer City team won 7-0.

On October 15, Kings Mountain traveled to Mooresville. The powerful Northeastern conference team could do no wrong and the Mounties, no right. Mooresville won 32 to 0.

Arch rival Shelby opposed Kings Mountain the next Friday. The Mountie gridders played valiantly before losing by a score of 19 to 0.

The seventh game started out badly for Kings Mountain. R. S. Central returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown. This seemed to take the spirit out of the Mounties as Kings Mountain lost 26 to 7.

Kings Mountain looked like a different team the next Friday. The Mountaineers came back to defeat the Belmont eleven by winning 14 to 0.

The season's final game pitted a strong Lincolnton team against the inspired Mountaineers. The Mountaineers made Lincolnton struggle for every gain. After tying the score 7-7, Kings Mountain fell behind and lost 19 to 7.

The 1965 season was a rebuilding one for Kings Mountain. Next year, perhaps, the more experienced Mountaineers will once again comprise a football powerhouse.

Coaches Bill Bates and Don Parker watch as the Mounties push forward.

Scott Cloninger rushes to the aid of his teammotes.

Charles Romsey (77) rushes to Mike Goforth's (23) rescue in the big Chose game.

Jay Powell hurries to check on the Cherryville Ironman.

Kenny Plonk moves to halt the Chase Trojans and . . .

Phillip Bunch helps with the attack.

The following boys received awards at the 1965 Faatball Banquet: Danny Kiser, Mast Valuable Player Award; Chip Bridges, Fred Plank, Blacking Traphy; Phillip Bunch, Mast Impraved Player Award; Larry Patrick, Jahn Gamble Schalarship Award.

IN MEMORIAM

. . . . . Mr. John Gamble, who rendered eight years of service to Kings Mountain High School as a teacher, coach, and friend. Our hearts are saddened by his absence.

. . . . . Ricky Wilson, student of Kings Mountain High School. His loss has certainly been felt in our hearts.

EDITORS' NOTE

Our first year in the new, modern Kings Mountain High School has been interesting and challenging. The section in this edition of Milestones, Building for the Future, which contains shots of our school, is designed to show off the many modern features of the new building.

The new Student Life section of the 1966 Milestones features many aspects of students' lives at Kings Mountain High School.

We have made one major change, and have kept another part of the annual the same as last year. The 1966 Milestones is a large size to fit in with the emergence of our school as a larger educational unit. The colors — the Black and Gold — have remained the same to show our school spirit.

With this edition of Milestones, we have set precedents by moving up to a larger size and by changing the format of our annual.

BETTER LIGHT — BETTER SIGHT!

Study time is eyestrain time! Reading . . . writing . . . study . . . all these need the right light to help your eyes see . . . and there's a right size bulb for every job. Use at least a 150-watt lamp bulb of the diffused type. Eliminate dark shadows by having general room lighting. Eliminate glare by making sure no unshielded lights are in sight.

FLOOF DAY

Mrs. Shuford wonders what this modern education is coming to.

Floof Day is tops for Little Boy Burgess.

Miss Cox enjoys this type of student teaching.

Floof Day was held on April 1. This was the time when teachers and students dressed as they pleased. The S. P. O. sponsored this activity and hopes Floof Day will become one of Kings Mountain High School's annual traditions.

The Aerospace class, taught by Mr. Blaine Froneburger, enjoyed a visit from the directors.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

These students were inducted into the National Honor Society at the Society's final meeting of the school year. They are rising seniors, and they will participate in the society as "the cream of the scholastic crop."

WE REGRET . . .

We regret that these Senior girl's pictures were omitted from the Senior class section of the 1966 Milestones. Here are their pictures twice as big. We hope this will make up for their disappointment.

Thank you, girls, for your patience and understanding.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BIG SUCCESS

Juniors and Seniors enjoyed the elaborately decorated Commons Area in May as they danced to the music of the Caravells at the Junior-Senior Dance. The theme of the function was based on the Roman era. To make the theme seem very realistic, the sophomores were dressed as Romans. Thanks to the Junior Class, the occasion was a "smashing success."

Sir Leslie Joy and date pose for a photograph.

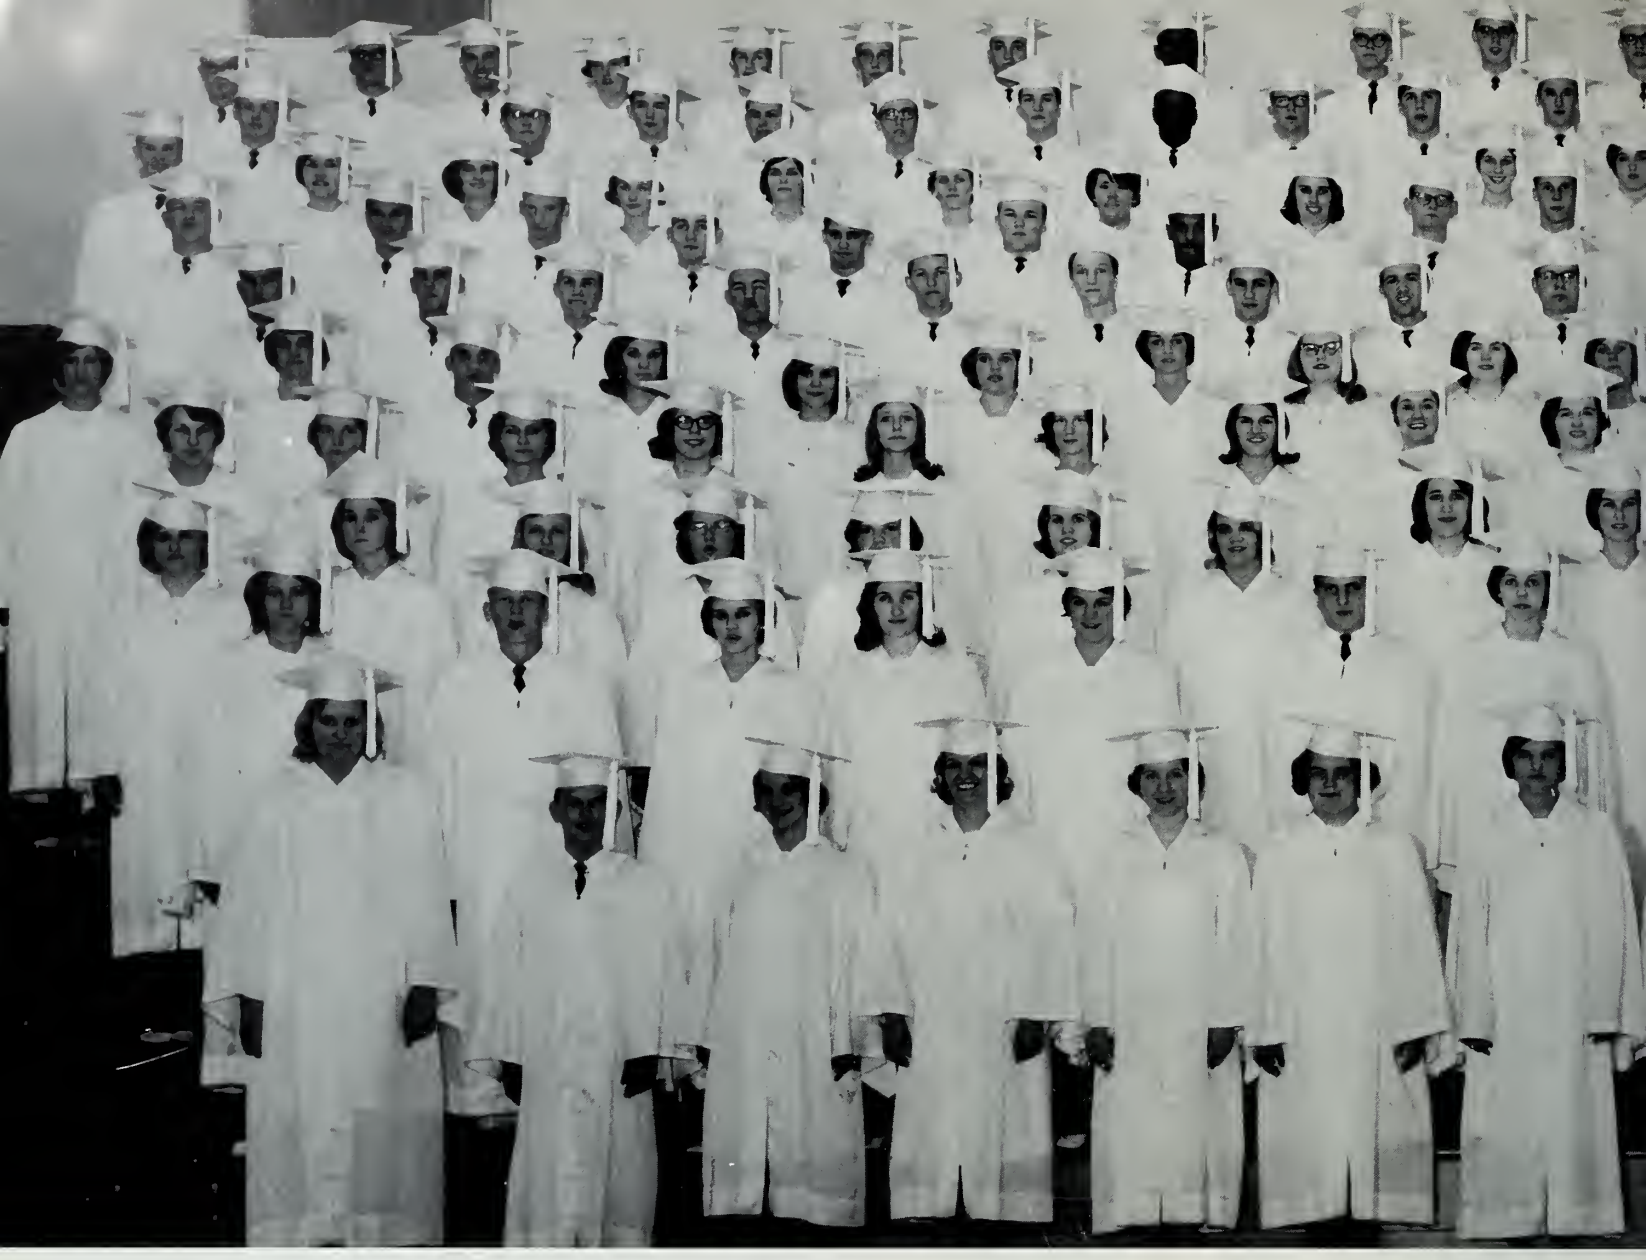
A toast to the dance!!

Sophomores entertain Juniors and Seniors.

Mr. and Mrs. Paschal have a fling.

Isn't (jerk) this (jerk) band (jerk) great (jerk)?

Time out for refreshments . . . and smiles from Barbara and Bill.



190 GRADUATE ON JUNE 3, 1966

June 3 was the climax of four long yeors of high school for 190 Seniors. For some it brought relief, for others eogerness, ond for others excitement. New goals and ideols were impressed upon their minds by the commencement ceremonies. There were teors ond smiles, but oll of the Seniors hod the some thought in mind: "Life's journey begins with o single step."

JUNIOR MARSHALS

The final march begins.

Watch out world. Here we come! !

Happiness is graduating.
